Award Description	Richland County Government committed CDBG-R funds to four Projects. 1) Infill Housing Development is planned for a targeted area that will reduce the number of vacant lots by 4 in a residential zone; provide decent safe and most importantly affordable housing and the project will help to increase the property values for existing property owners. 2) The Infrastructure road construction project will greatly impact a five phased PUD that is undeveloped. The road paving activity will directly impact 16 homes that are currently accessed by a dirt road. 3) Public Service employment and training program for 25 youth between the ages of 14-19. Participants will be recruited from the Foster Care System and from at risk communities. The fourth activity is planning and general administration of the CDBG-R

retained to assist with the infrastructure - road construction project

Total Federal Amount of ARRA Expenditure 108428.01

Total Federal ARRA Infrastructure Expenditure 90595.80

Infrastructure Purpose and Rationale The Infrastructure project is one that is needed and is located in a 60% LMI neighborhood. The project was shovel ready and it would not have been funded otherwise. Also in this economy, this project allows the contractor to keep employees working.
