Ms. Onley responded there will be three vacancies.

Ms. Barron noted those applications received will remain on file for one year.

Ms. Mackey stated the committee did not interview one candidate. She assumed the applicant would not be included in the selection process.

Ms. Barron responded in the affirmative. Ms. Barron noted, for the record, the committee did not interview applicants 4(a)(4) and 4(b)(5).

Mr. Malinowski stated one of the applicants was excellent and knowledgeable, and the person's current job goes hand-in-hand with what we are looking for in regard to this position. Another individual's qualifications were close, but they are an "outsider". He inquired if we would be better served by the "outsider" with good qualifications versus the individual that is "in-house".

Ms. Barron responded the position would be better served by someone that does not work in tandem with the Community Relations Council. She inquired as to what further benefit the board would garner from appointing this individual.

Ms. Mackey stated she was overall impressed by the candidates, which makes this a hard decision.

Ms. Mackey moved to appoint Mr. Stephen Rebl, seconded by Ms. Barron.

Mr. Malinowski inquired as to the objective of the Music Festival Commission. He noted some of the applicants were in favor of supporting local artists. If the intent is to organize music festivals and bring in outside talent, he felt Mr. Steven Brown had more contacts throughout the country and could bring in a better entertainment.

Ms. Barron stated, in her opinion, they want individuals to be on this commission with experience and knowledge of music festivals and the industry overall. The connections would be left to the Executive Director.

Ms. Barron noted, on the record, Mr. Brown was awesome and could be used on other boards.
