

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION PLANS

Community Flood Recovery Meetings gave residents information and an opportunity to participate in the process to determine how federal funding will be used for flood recovery. Four meetings took place in June and six in July.

June Meetings

- June 29, Trenholm Park, 3900 Covenant Road, Columbia
- June 29, Ballentine Community Center, 1009 Bickley Road, Irmo
- June 30, North Springs Park, 1320 Clemson Road, Columbia
- June 30, St. Andrews Park, 920 Beatty Road, Columbia

July Meetings

- July 12, Richland County Sheriff's Dept. Substation, 2615 Lower Richland Blvd.
- July 12, Crane Creek Community Center, 7405 Fairfield Road, Columbia
- July 13, Eastover Park, 1031 Main St., Eastover
- July 13, Parklane Road Adult Activity Center, 7494 Parklane Road, Columbia
- July 14, Richland County Administration Building, 2020 Hampton St., Columbia
- July 14, Gadsden Park Community Center, 1668 S Goodwin Circle, Gadsden

Stakeholder Meetings

This series of stakeholder meetings is aimed at specific audiences, such as the business community, veterans, local schools and nonprofits.

Richland and Lexington County Stakeholder Meetings

- July 18, United Way of the Midlands, 1800 Main St., Columbia
Intended audience: Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster (VOADs)
- July 19, Greater Columbia Community Relations Council
930 Richland St., Columbia
Intended audience: civil organizations, nonprofits, Richland Schools Districts One and Two and Richland-Lexington School District Five

Midlands Stakeholder Meeting

- July 22
Columbia Housing Authority, Cecil Tillis Center
2111 Simkins Lane, Columbia
Intended audience: Midlands Area Consortium for the Homeless (MACH), homeless agencies, veterans

Richland County Business Community Stakeholder Meeting and Live Broadcast

- July 22
Council Chambers, County Administration Building, 2020 Hampton St., Columbia
Intended audience: local business community *This meeting will also be broadcast live on www.rcgov.us. Those attending virtually can participate by texting questions and comments to 803-240-4699 or using hashtag #RCRecovery on Facebook (@RichlandSC) and Twitter (@RichlandSC).