Be a farmer or city slicker. On the day of judging, put on your overalls, straw hat and boots or your work attire for the city.

Judging Criteria: You will need to tell us what you do on your farm and what you grow. In the city, what profession are you in? How do you spend your day? You may use props such as hay bales, produce or even the occasional cow. If you are from the city, you may use a brief-case, sheriff's badge, nurses' uniform, or even a poodle. Use your imagination! Judging will be based on originality and class participation.
